SCENTVENTURE AWARDS

I just know that many of you will put your heart and soul into this mission, in the same way that you show up for your dog day in, day out.

I believe you deserve recognition for that!

The Scentventure Awards started from a sense of awe and amazement at the things Club members were achieving.

How to earn the badge

To earn the limited collector's edition Scentventure Spacestars badge, complete the following steps.

Provide evidence of you and your dog having a go at all of the challenges from Episodes I, II and III, as well as at least four bonus activities from Spacecraft or Rocket Fuel.

Use the hashtag #ScentventureSpacestars

When you have finished everything, place the order for your badge (£5, order link to follow).

We will then verify your submissions and send your badge on the next ship bound for your galaxy.

Our logo is being made into an enamel pin for your collection!

The Scentventure Awards give you the sense of achievement you get when you work towards goals and succeed together.

This will be your only chance to earn this badge.

OooH, prizes!

Regardless of whether you wish to earn the badge or not, it's worth tracking your activities.

Everyone who completes all of the challenges can be entered into a prize draw! #ScentventureSpacestars
